20 Things Every Christian Should Know

Leader - Brian Checchio

Mondays from 5-6 pm, Feb.1 – Mar. 8

God doesn't call every Christian to go off to seminary, but there are certain matters of doctrine – that is, the church's teaching – that every Christian simply must know. "Theology is important because what we believe affects how we live. If you're a relatively new believer in Jesus, or if you're a more mature Christian looking for a quick brush-up on why you believe what you believe, this workshop is for you.

Parenting When You're Not the Parent

Leader – Tim Swingle

Tuesdays from 7-8 pm, Feb. 2 – Mar. 9

Are you one of today's heroes, those folks who already raised their family but are now raising grandchildren, nieces or nephews. Today's world is very different from the one you raised your family in. Join us one night each week this spring for some encouragement, fellowship and counsel. You will probably find that the things you struggle with are the same as many other people in your situation. Bring your questions to class with you and feel free to share with others in the group any ideas that have worked for you.

Battling Unbelief

Leader – Bill Whitt

Wednesdays from 5:30 until 6:30 p.m., Feb. 3 – March 10

No one sins out of duty. We sin because it offers some promise of happiness. That empty promise will always enslave us unless and until we discover the greater joy offered by our God (Psalm 63:3). The best way to defeat sin is not to stop seeking pleasure but to seek the superior pleasure and abundant life offered to us by God. In this study, we will watch 30-minute videos by John Piper as he discusses ways to sever the roots of sin that ensnare us, including anxiety, pride, shame, impatience, bitterness and lust. This approach to Christian living may revolutionize your life!

A Ladies Study of the Book of Daniel – Part II

Leader – Vicki Mahood

Sundays from 5-7 pm, Jan. 31 – Mar. 7

Our ladies will continue their class with Beth Moore launching them into the prophetic and eschatological second half of the book of Daniel. We will take up our study in chapter 7 and explore the fascinating prophecies from the time of Daniel through the second coming of Christ. The video session and five day homework plan continues to lead us into a life of integrity in today's self absorbed society. Vicki will meet you there!

Understanding God's Hand in Your Life

Leader – Deb Sarver

Wednesdays from 7-8 pm, Feb. 3 – Mar. 10

To Be Determined

Seeing the Big Picture of Scripture

Leader – Tanner Cline

Sundays from 5-6 pm, Feb. 14 – Mar. 21

Have you ever struggled to see how a verse relates to Jesus and your own life? Has the Old Testament ever seemed oddly different from the New? Maybe you've always wanted a helpful guide for your personal Bible study. When you read the Bible, what do you see? In this workshop, we'll take a look at the Bible's Big Picture. Using the different lenses the Scriptures provide, you'll learn to study the Bible with more confidence and accuracy. Whether you're a new believer or have been listening to solid Bible preaching for years, this workshop is for you!

Be sure to call and reserve your place in one of these workshops today.
